14. What are the benefits of a YYP member? Is there any membership fee?

YYP membership allows you to apply for personal financing assistance with YYP, subject to your eligibility. Long-term members with strong credit profiles are also likelier to enjoy better profit rates.

Membership fee is RM20 payable monthly and is non-refundable. The funds collected may, at YYP's own discretion, be used for donations to benign causes, hold meetings for members and/or scholarships to eligible individuals.

15. Will the membership fees be returned?

Sorry, membership fees do not serve as deposits and will not be returned.

16. Is there any fee or advanced instalment which I need to bear?

All applicable fees will be deducted upfront from your original financing amount and include but not limited to, processing fee, brokerage fee, stamp duty, administration charges, subscription fee, membership fee and Sales and Services Tax (SST), where applicable. Advanced instalments, between 0 to 3 months instalments, will be dependent on the product offered to you based on your credit profile and financial behaviour and will also be deducted upfront from your original financing amount. No legal fees or payments to third parties will be imposed after you received your financing.

As these fees are already deducted, you are not required to pay further to anybody else any further fees under any circumstances. Please contact our Customer Service Centre as provided in Q31 if you are asked to pay any additional fees by the Marketing Representative immediately.

17. Is there any insurance or Takaful coverage for my financing?

There is no insurance or Takaful coverage for YYP financing products.

18. What is the net financing amount that I will receive?

The net financing amount is the amount after netting off all necessary fees and is dependent on the product offered to you. This will be communicated clearly to you for your consideration before your confirmation to proceed with the financing application during the akad process.

19. When and how do I receive my financing?

Your personal financing application will be processed within 2-3 working days, subject to complete documentation, employer verification and customer confirmation through akad. Proceeds will be credited to your account through telegraphic transfer within 24 hours after your application is approved.

20. What is akad?

Akad is a promise between two parties whereby YYP offers customers to enter into a personal financing transaction and the customer agrees to accept the offer. Customers must understand the questions and / or confirmations enquired during the akad process and provide the appropriate responses. Acceptance or rejection of the offer by the customer must be made clear before the agreement can be completed. All conversations during akad are recorded.

21. Will I be notified once my application is approved / rejected / cancelled?

We will contact you for customer confirmation and verification (akad) during our application processing. You will be notified via email once your financing is transferred to your account after your application is approved and you have accepted the offer during the akad process. For this reason, your email must be provided.

Kindly note that YYP reserves the right of termination as detailed in Q23 below.

To receive an update on your current application status, kindly contact the Marketing Representative facilitating your application.

22. How do I withdraw or cancel my application?

Customer's right of cancellation

Customer reserves the right to cancel the financing facility at any time before or after disbursement:

Before financing is disbursed

You may withdraw or cancel your application by declining the offer and stating your desire to do so during the akad process. Otherwise, please contact the Marketing Representative facilitating your application.

After financing is disbursed

You may only cancel or withdraw your application within 14 days from the date of agreement if the financing has been disbursed to you. The full debited financing amount must be returned to YYP and a processing fee of RM250 will be charged.

After 14 days from the date of agreement and disbursement, cancellation or withdrawal will constitute as an early settlement. You will be required to pay YYP the Selling Price owed from the financing facility and any rebates will be upon the sole discretion of YYP. Please refer Q28 for rebate calculation method.

23. Why is my application rejected/facility terminated?

Rejected applications before financing is disbursed

Applications which do not meet the requirements as listed in Q3 may be disqualified. Your application may also be rejected depending on your credit profile, current financial situation and commitment.

Terminated facilities after financing is disbursed

YYP reserves the right to terminate disbursed facilities and accelerate payment of the facility and/or demand full payment within fourteen (14) days of written notice if any of the following events occur:

- Default in paying any instalments or payments and/or other monies when due and payable
- Presentation of a bankruptcy petition against the customer
- If the customer has become mentally unsound or deceased
- If any information provided by the customer is proven to be incorrect or misleading or contain material omission of facts
- If in the absolute opinion of YYP, the facility has not been operated satisfactorily
- If legal proceedings, suit for action of any kind whatsoever be instituted against the customer

24. How does the financing repayment process work?

Financing repayments are made on a monthly basis via non-discretionary salary deductions processed by Angkatan Koperasi Kebangsaan Malaysia (Angkasa). In the event the salary deductions are not activated, you may contact our Customer Service Centre as provided in Q31 to arrange for repayments on outstanding amounts owing to us. Notwithstanding that, you are responsible in ensuring that the repayments are promptly made every month until they are fully settled.

24. How does the financing repayment process work? (cont'd)

Direct debit facilities are also available if the salary deduction scheme could not be activated and / or is stopped. You are responsible for ensuring your direct debit account details with YYP remain updated or to sign a new Direct Debit Authorisation Form for any changes to your direct debit account.

25. Why is there a difference between the monthly instalment stated in the Commodity Sale Agreement (Perjanjian Jualan Komoditi) and my payslip?

The difference comprises of charges imposed by Angkasa, the party processing the salary deduction, SST and membership fee.

26. What happens if I overpaid my instalments for this month?

All excess payments will be treated as prepayment and used to offset gross balance or amounts overdue. Prepayment does not amount to advanced instalment and will not result in lower profit payments or future instalment amounts. Repayment of the original instalment amount will still be required the following month.

Customers may request for refund in the event their salaries are over-deducted due to technical issues subject to no overdue payment in arrears. Please contact our Customer Service Centre as provided in Q31 to facilitate your refund request.

27. When does my repayment begin?

Your financing repayment will be reflected in the payslip 3 months after you receive your financing proceeds. For example, your repayment will begin in April 2019's payslip upon receiving your financing proceeds in January 2019.

28. Can I pay off my personal financing earlier? What is the procedure?

Yes, early settlement of your financing is allowed in 2 easy steps.

1. Get your early settlement statement

You will need to request for an Early Settlement Statement before paying off your personal financing. To get an Early Settlement Statement:

1.1 Fill in the request form available in <http://www.yyp.com.my> at Download > Request Form.

1.2 Pay a RM60 processing fee for each Early Settlement Statement to:

Bank	: Ambank
Account Number	: 0012010026381
Payee Name	: Mezzanine Enterprise Sdn Bhd

1.3 Email the request form together with your name, IC number and proof of payment to pertanyaan@yyp.com.my.

You will receive your Early Settlement Statement within 30 days upon payment.

28. Can I pay off my personal financing earlier? What is the procedure? (cont'd)

2. Pay off and settle your account

After receiving your Early Settlement Statement, you may proceed to pay off your outstanding financing based on the total amount advised in the statement. Settlement may be in the form of refinancing through an external refinancier or direct payment through the following services:

Bill Code: 9647
Ref-1: sila nyatakan no pinjaman anda
Ref-2: sila nyatakan no telefon anda

JomPAY online at Internet and Mobile Banking with your Current or Savings account
- Perbankan Internet
- Mesin Deposit Tunai (CDM)

Rebates (Ibra') for early settlement will be at our full discretion, subject to existing internal policies and calculated as follows:

$\text{Rebate (Ibra')} = \text{Unearned Profit} \times \text{Internal Policy Rate} - \text{Applicable Costs And Charges}^*$

* including early settlement charges, committed funding costs, fees related to provision of early settlement services and other costs incurred / to be incurred as a result of early settlement.

Rebates shall be reflected as a reduction in the unearned profit element of the financing facility, and not in cash payable to you. As such, the settlement amount is calculated as follows:

$\text{Settlement amount} = \text{Outstanding Selling Price} - \text{Rebate (Ibra')}$

29. Why do I need to pay RM60 for Early Settlement Statements

A RM60 processing fee is charged to cover all necessary costs arising from processing your request, including the recalculation of profit for rebate consideration and the outstanding balance.

30. What are the implications if I fail to fulfil my obligations?

In the event you fail to service the instalments by the due date, the following late payment charges may be imposed:

a. During Financing Period

Late payment charges up to 1.0% per year will be imposed on the overdue instalments.

b. After Maturity of Financing Period

Late payment charges will be imposed based on the prevailing Islamic Interbank Money Market (IIIM) rate on the outstanding balance of the YYP Selling Price until full settlement of the YYP Selling Price. YYP Selling Price is defined as the agreed selling price payable by the customer for the commodity purchase as per the Commodity Sales Agreement.

c. Default Payment

In the event of default (non-payment) on one (1) or more monthly instalment, legal action will be taken if you fail to respond to the reminder notice.

d. Right to Offset Amount Overdue

If you have any amount overdue in any previous financing with YYP, YYP has the right to offset the amount overdue from the new financing amount before it is disbursed to you.

e. Legal Action

YYP reserves the right to take legal action and all costs will be borne by the customer. Legal action against you will affect your credit evaluation and cause future financing facilities to be more difficult or costly to obtain.
